

Electrical - Power Distribution

Owner – Commonwealth Edison

Location – Throughout Chicago, IL

Date – Since 1906

Since 1906, John Burns Construction Company has been performing various underground construction projects for the Commonwealth Edison Company in Chicago including:

- Installation of a transformer yard and equipment at O’Hare International Airport.
- Installation of miles of duct banks and wiring throughout Illinois including the Chicagoland area.
- Construction of large diameter electrical manholes and vaulted structures throughout Chicago Business District.

